

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEDIA ADVISORY

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR ANNA NICOLE SMITH

NASSAU, The Bahamas – March 1, 2007 – Funeral services for Anna Nicole Smith will take place at 10:30 a.m. Friday, March 2, at the Mount Horeb Baptist Church in Nassau, The Bahamas. Afterwards, Smith will be laid to rest in Lakeview Memorial Gardens.

The church and graveside services are closed to the public. Press staging areas will be located at the various sites.

Members of the media are advised to arrive at the church before 9:00 a.m. and the cemetery before 11:00 a.m. At those times, the press staging areas will be closed and secured, and late arrivals will not be given access.

The following is a timeline of the events.

5:25 a.m. : The motorcade arrives at the Broward County Medical Examiner's office. Local law enforcement will escort the hearse containing Ms. Smith's casket to the Miami International Airport, where it will be flown by private plane to The Bahamas.

*Media may line up on either side of the street to pay their respects as the hearse passes.

9:00 a.m. : Private plane arrives at Million-Air Airport in Nassau. Customs will be cleared and the casket will be transferred to a hearse. Motorcade transports Ms. Smith's casket to Mount Horeb Church in Nassau.

10:10 a.m.: Richard C. Milstein, Guardian-ad litem, makes a statement to the media at Mount Horeb Church.

10:30 a.m.: Church service begins.

11:30 a.m.: The family leaves the church for a private graveside service.

11:45 a.m.: Graveside service begins.

Mr. Milstein kindly requests that the members of the media uphold the decorum and dignity that should be maintained throughout this process, for the sake of Dannielynn and the memories she will have of her mother's funeral.

###